Booking Policies and Conditions

Booking Confirmation and Deposits

- Upon submission of written request from tour operator or agent, the lodge will make a provisional booking which will be valid for a two-week period.
- Guest name must be provided when making a provisional booking, and bookings are non-transferrable.
- Within two weeks of making the provisional booking, written confirmation of reservation is required and cancellation policy will then come in effect as described below.
- If written confirmation is not received within two weeks, the booking is automatically cancelled by our system. We will send an email notifying of this cancellation and give the opportunity to reinstate and confirm the booking.
- Deposit is not required to secure a reservation for a forward booking, however full payment for booking is due 4 weeks prior to arrival. Please remember that our cancellation policy falls into effect at 8 weeks prior to arrival even if a deposit has not yet been received, and the cancellation fee will still be due if booking is cancelled during that period.
- For initial bookings with new companies we reserve the right to charge a 50% deposit to secure a reservation within 2 weeks of making a provisional booking. This will be at the discretion of the lodge owner and you will be notified upon making the provisional reservation if this will apply. Our normal cancellation policy still applies.
- If full deposit is not paid 4 weeks prior to arrival, reservation will be automatically cancelled.
- Any delay in payment beyond this due date, must be pre-approved in writing from the lodge and cancellation policy still applies.
- For last minute bookings (defined as within 4 weeks prior to arrival) full payment is due within 48 hours of receiving booking.

Cancellation Policy

All Cancellations will receive penalties at the following levies:

4-8 weeks prior to arrival – 25% of full value of accommodation package

2-4 weeks prior to arrival – 50% of full value of accommodation package

1-2 weeks prior to arrival – 75% of full value of accommodation package

Less than 1 week prior to arrival – 100% of full value of accommodation package
